

Situation Awareness Specialist® (SAS)

Enhancing Skills and Safety in the Workplace

What is the SAS Course

The Situational Awareness Specialist® (SAS) Professional Certificate Program is designed to educate individuals through contextual and practical activities in dealing with the dynamics of random and potentially threatening events.

Convenience

- Course is delivered online or in person
- Approximately 4 hours in length
- Cost effective

Practical Objectives

- Enable a mindset change
- Become a practitioner of the craft
- Become an asset to oneself and those around us

Terminal Objectives

- Understand and describe the concepts of situational awareness including; vulnerable vs capable, observation, behavioral analysis and practical travel planning
- Understand and describe the concepts of becoming a situational awareness practitioner including: gray-man theory, hicks law, tactical considerations and tactical reaction
- Understand and describe concepts and strategies of reacting to a terrorist or criminal threat including; understanding basic terrorist/criminal threat characteristics and how to react

Course is broken up into 5 modules

INTRODUCTION TO SITUATIONAL AWARENESS

Defining perceptual elements within the environment and enabling a survival mental state to allow effective focus during a crisis.

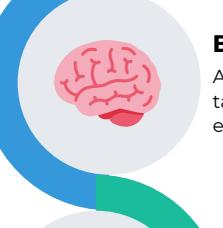

ANALYZE CRIMINAL CHARACTERISTICS

Understanding victim selection and the physiological and psychological responses to a perceived threat.

REACTING TO AN ACTIVE ATTACKER

Understanding basic active attacker characteristics and planning.

UNDERSTANDING THREATS

Gaining the ability to interpret criminal threats and pre-incident indicators

BECOMING A PRACTITIONER

Applying the gray man theory and tactical considerations in the environment.

Expected Outcomes

- Increase safety and reduce staff injuries in the workplace, enable staff members to develop a safety mindset which can better help anticipate and manage a conflict
- Improved staff response measures when dealing with crisis

Ask about our Advanced Practitioner Course

We offer a highly specialized course to active public safety officers. Due to the advanced level of tactical concepts, you must fall within one of the categories below in order to qualify: You must be:

- Military
- Police
- Private Security Contractors
- Security Professionals
- Protective Operations
- Other Law Enforcement Careers